Introduction

This booklet is dedicated to all those people who are buried in Eaton Socon Cemetery. These people lived in the Eatons and in their lifetime contributed to life in the villages. Many of the older families remain in the area and have seen vast changes in the closing decades of the twentieth century and the opening decades of the twenty-first. Some of these families requested that a booklet be made so that they could 'find' their parents and grandparents graves. We hope that the enclosed maps and descriptions of the graves help.

In particular we would like to thank Brian Payne who must be thanked for all his very hard work patiently recording all the headstones and other memorials when the first survey was carried out.

This booklet was originally produced by the Eatons Community Association as part of their 'Eatons People and Places Project' and has been revised several times, approximately every 5 years, up to September 2019. However, it is unlikely that it will be further updated other than for minor corrections, and it is no longer available for sale in a printed version. Instead, it has been made available as a PDF download from the St Neots Local History Society website stneotslhs.org.uk.

Inevitably in a production of this size, there will be some errors and omissions. If you find any, or wish any other information on the history of Eaton Socon or Eaton Ford, then please contact Eatons Community Association (ESCA), 3 Collingwood Road, Eaton Socon, St Neots, PE19 8JQ, email eatonsca@gmail.com.

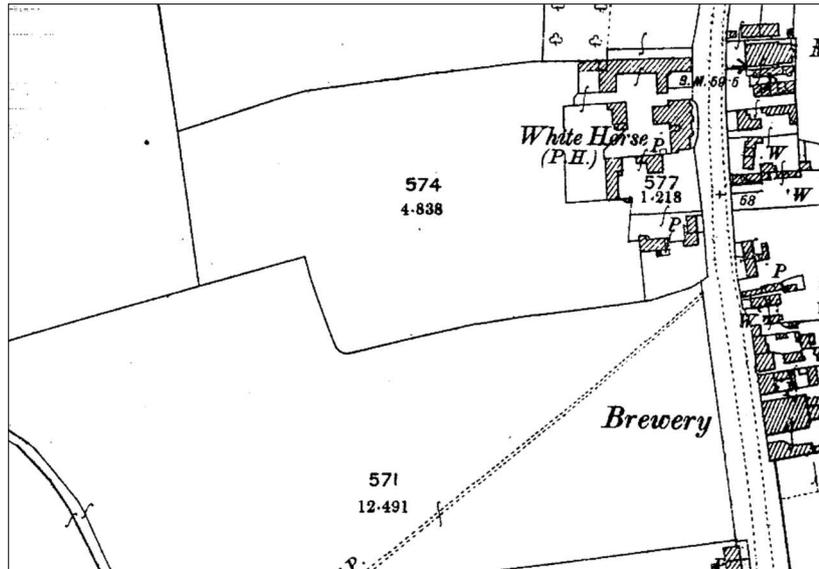

History of Eaton Socon Cemetery

Eaton Socon Parish Cemetery opened in July 1930. A newly constructed road led westwards from the Great North Road to a quiet burial ground on the hillside. The new cemetery sloped down to a stream and was surrounded by fields. The view led one's gaze across the fields towards outlying farms in the Parish. A quiet spot for a moment's reflection. A truly fitting location for a new resting place for the departed.

The idea to open a new burial ground had been first suggested in 1925. In the Parish Council Minutes of June 25th 1925, the Chairman, Mr Wilkinson, had said that "many persons thought that it was time a new cemetery was provided for Eaton Socon". On October 15th 1925 it was recorded that "the matter was now urgent...the Church Council, by cutting down the trees on the East side of the present Churchyard and diverting the path near them could provide space for about 120 further graves which would serve about five years".

In April 1926 a site committee was appointed consisting of Mr S.G. Wilkinson, Mr F. Wellham, Mr W. Howard, Mr H.S. Manning, Mr Ed Brittain and Mr Humphrey. The search was on for a suitable site for the new burial ground. During the next few weeks several sites were suggested – Mr Hall's fields near The George and Dragon, on the west side of the North Rd and one field near the church path, Hatchway Close on Marshall's Farm, a field on Ackerman Street, fields on both sides of Bushmead Rd and Mr Bull's field on the North Rd which was up for sale and available. Mr Bull had been approached and he had agreed to sell the land for £375 for 2 acres. It seemed that a site had been found.

By September 1926 all the sites had been tested for water levels and it had been decided that the only field that could be used was the Hatchway field, although there were serious doubts as it was too far from the road and the cost of making a road to the site was thought to be too expensive. Two further sites on Mr A. Jordan's land were considered but by November it had been reported that the water levels were again too high. Still, the only site that seemed suitable was the land in Hatchway Close. Mrs Marshall had said that at first, she was 'not happy to sell the land as it was in the middle of the farm and would detract from the value for building purposes, and that she needed all the grass'. After much discussion it was decided to purchase 2½ acres of land in Hatchway Close. Now the work began.

1901 Ordnance Survey Map

In March 1928 the costings for the new burial ground were estimated as –

Purchase of land	£465
Laying Out	£100
Roadway	£360
Contingencies	£ 50
Boundaries, fencing, expenses and contingencies	£265

Throughout 1928 and 1929 tenders were sent in and work began on the new road and burial ground. A shelter was built and iron railings and gates were erected. By June 1929 plans were drawn up for pathways and a plan of grave spaces showed that 982 graves could be available. The cemetery was set out in rows numbered A-Z with plots numbered 1–36. (The rows continue today with AZ, BZ, CZ and so on.) Rules and regulations were written and from November 1929 men were employed at the cemetery. In the Wages Book Mr G. Nichols and Mr G. Hackett were paid 10d an hour (4p). In May 1930 a list of fees was drawn up and in June 1930 an opening ceremony was planned for Sunday July 13th at 3pm. The old part of the churchyard, it had been decided, was to be closed at the following Michaelmas.

Since 1930 the cemetery has suffered from minor bouts of vandalism and in 1932 it was recorded in the Parish Council Minutes ‘that the fence was damaged by horses rubbing up against it’. Mrs Marshall was asked to deal with the problem.

During the latter years of the twentieth century more changes around the cemetery took place. In the late 1960s work began on the new A1 trunk road in the fields to the west of the Cemetery. The views from the hillside now include the sight of traffic on this very busy road. As well as the birds there is a hum of passing traffic. In the 1970s and 1980s the farmland surrounding the cemetery was sold and the burial ground is now surrounded on three sides by factories and small industrial units. Noise from these factories is kept to a minimum and it is still possible to sit quietly in the cemetery. Most of the original road to the burial ground is now a footpath and the route for vehicular traffic is along Little End Road through the Industrial Estate.

This is a quiet parish cemetery and many graves are very well cared for. There are a large number of rabbits around at certain times of the day which has led to flowers planted on grave plots and fences being erected for their protection. After more than 90 years the cemetery is now full up and no new plots are being created.

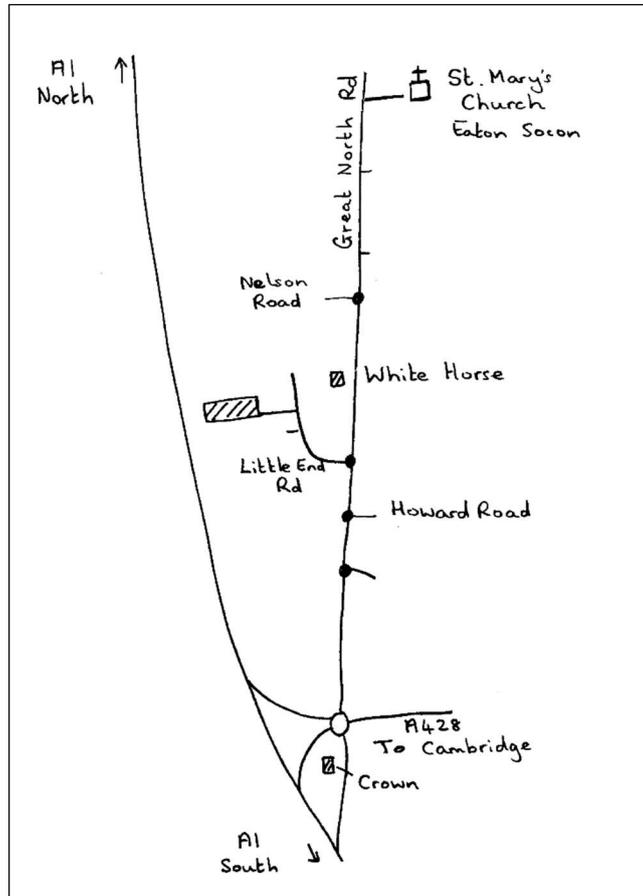

Eaton Socon Cemetery Registers

The cemetery registers, once held within Eaton Socon Parish and later transferred to Huntingdon, are now kept at St Neots Town Council, where the staff have kindly allowed access to enable this study to be made. The upkeep of the cemetery is also in the hands of the Town Council and all enquiries should be made to St Neots Town Council, Council Offices, The Priory, St Neots, PE19 2BH.

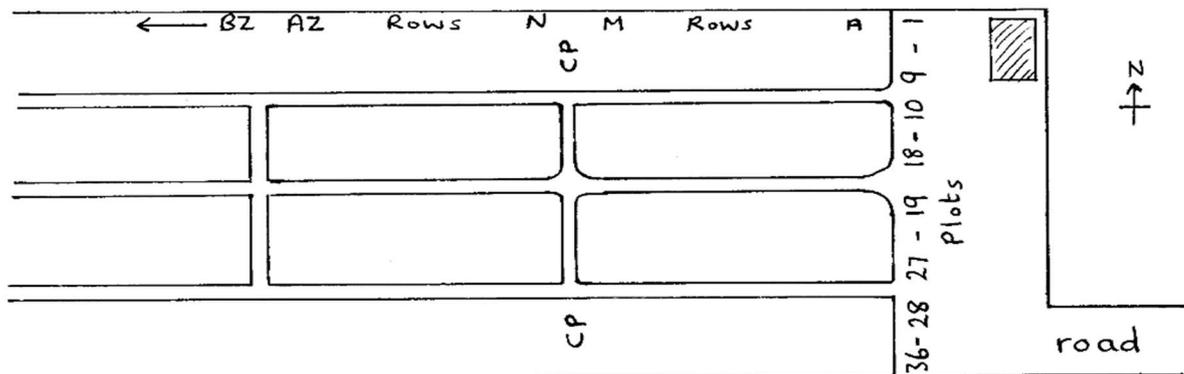

DEDICATION AND OPENING OF CEMETERY.
 Quite a large number of Parishioners attended the Dedication and Opening Ceremony of Eaton Socon Cemetery at Hatchway Close on Sunday afternoon. Members of the Parish Council present were Messrs. S. G. Wilkinson (Chairman), G. Daniels, C. Ibbett, H. S. Manning, W. Howard, W. Townsend, H. A. Gates, W. G. Sheard, H. Baker, Ed. Batten and Rev. E. P. Higham; Mr. A. E. Dickinson (Vice-Chairman) and Mr. A. McKechnie (Clerk) were absent on account of being away on holiday. The Rev. E. P. Higham took the service, and was assisted by the Rev. J. Hazleton (St. Neots Street Baptist Chapel), and the Rev. B. S. Bousall (Eaton Socon Wesleyan Chapel). The Vicar mentioned that St. Neots Salvation Army Band, and the Rev. C. E. Clarke (Primitive Methodist), were unable to be present.
 The service was of a very simple yet appropriate character. It opened with the hymn "Jesus lover of my soul" followed by the Rev. J. Hazleton reading the 90th Psalm and a short Lesson from St. John's Gospel. After the hymn "Hark my soul," Dedication Prayers were offered by the Rev. B. S. Bousall, and the Cemetery thereupon was officially open for burials. The final hymn was "Abide with Me." The service closed with the Vicar saying: "I heard a voice saying, Blessed are the dead which are in the Lord for they rest from their labour," and the congregation repeating the Lord's Prayer. There was no address.
 Mr. Wilkinson felt sure they would wish him on their behalf to thank the Vicar, Rev. Bousall and Rev. Hazleton for kindly coming that afternoon and giving them a very nice service, it was one which had been very simple yet very impressive, and he thought they would agree with him, it was just the sort of service which was wanted. In conclusion, he must say the Parish Council had tried to provide a Cemetery worthy of the Parish, and he hoped they would think with him that they had succeeded.
 Visitors then took the opportunity of viewing the Cemetery, which is situated on an ideal site, and is admirably laid out.

The rows are numbered A-Z and then AZ, BZ, CZ etc. One row labelled CP was allocated for children and some were buried in that row. However, some children are buried elsewhere and where their resting place has been identified then it has been added into this booklet.

The plots within each row are numbered 1-36 from right to left when facing the rows. Row 1 in many cases was right up against the hedge and was often not used.

Heart-Shaped Stone Sadly Missed a Dear Grandad

Note (read in 2014 and gone by 2019)

In Loving Memory
Remembering a wonderful Dad
Dad, today is hard
Because all that I can do
Is think about the things I lost
The day that I lost you
I know that I should try
Not to dwell upon the sad
And think about how lucky I was
To have you for my Dad
I can't help but miss
Just having you round the place
Your good advice, your help
And your lovely smiling face
But Dad I know you wouldn't
Like to see me so upset
So I'll wear a smile for you today
The Dad I'll never forget.

In 2019 two poems are here

Until We Meet Again

I think of you when children laugh
or old FRIENDS meet once more
I'll think of you whenever loved ones
knock upon my DOOR

I'll hear your voice in summertime
when the sky is blue and BRIGHT
I'll hear it too in wintertime
When keeping WARM at night

When I'm sad I know you're there making sure I COPE
and when I'm happy, you're there too
filling me with HOPE

You are always in my thoughts
and ALTHOUGH it causes pain
I'm soothed by thoughts that when it's time
we two will MEET again

Dear Wife You Are Missed So Very Much

From when the morning comes
At the start of each new day,
I feel a loneliness in my heart
That will never go away.

For, from the moment I awaken
Until I go to sleep at night,
I long to give you gentle kisses
And in my arms to hold you tight.

I try my best to think about
The happy times we shared
That brought a joy into my life
That could never be compared.

Yet, although these precious memories
Are the sweetest there could be,
I would give everything I own
To have you here again with me.

Plaque inside the shelter above a bench with a photograph of Gloria

Here, quietly we sit and reflect on our loved ones,
They will be remembered in our hearts and minds forever.
As we look out we know they are not far away.

For that is what they would have wanted.
