Memorials on the wall adjoining 20 New Street

- 19 This testimony of filial affection is inscribed to the memory of JEMIMA TOLLER, wife of WILLIAM TOLLER, who died Nov^r 1st 1842. Aged 47. Her bereaved family mourn her mortal remains consigned beneath this stone to the care of the silent grave: but sorrow not as those without hope, remembering that those who “sleep in Jesus will God bring with him”.
In the faith of Jesus dying,
All her woes for ever cease.
There’s no sorrow, sin or sighing
In the world of endless peace:
Joys eternal,
Feast her happy spirit there.
- 20 Beneath this stone are deposited the sacred relicts of the late WILLIAM TOLLER, who on the 3rd of June, 1831, in the 45th year of his age, was in the vigour of life and health and in the midst of activity and usefulness, singled out by the decree of an inscrutable providence as an instance of the too oft forgotten truth, in the midst of life we are in death. “Blessed are the dead that die in the lord from henceforth: yea, saith the spirit that they may rest from their labours.”
- 21 In Memory of MARY ANN Daughter of NAPHTALI WAKELIN & ESTHER HILL who died Decr 25th 1841 AGED 4 YEARS and 5 Months

Alas how changed that lovely flower
Which bloomed and cheered my heart
Fair fleeting comfort of an hour
How soon we’re called to part
And shall my bleeding heart arraign
That God whose ways are love
Or vainly cherish anxious pain
For her who rests above.
