PRIVACY STATEMENT

The UK Data Protection Act 1998 has been superseded by the new EU General Data Protection Regulation as from 25th May 2018. These regulations expand the rights of individuals to control how personal information is collected and processed.

I am happy to receive emails and telephone calls from the Society when it is necessary for me to hear from the society. The data will only be used to communicate about St. Neots Local History Society events and those events linked to local history. The data is for the exclusive use of the society and will not be passed on to others.

I give the SNLH Society permission to hold my details for the purposes of the society to communicate with me.
